DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-5 in the reply filed on 9-7-2005 is acknowledged. Claims 6-7 have been withdrawn from further consideration.

2. Action on the merits of claims 1-4 follows:

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, it is unclear what the steps of the method include and how the method is done. For example, in claim 1, applicant recites "taking aluminum residue ash a raw material." Then a calcination and stabilization step is performed, but it is unclear what is being calcined or stabilized. In step c) applicant again recites manufacturing a fireproofing material from raw material. Is the fireproofing material, made from the calcined stabilized aluminum residue ash? Or, is the aluminum residue ash made into a fireproofing material without calcining or stabilizing. Suitable explanation and correction is required.

4. Claims 2-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cherdrone et al.

Cherdrone et al. teach a method of performing a sintering step on an aluminum oxide containing composition to produce, after grinding a quality fireproofing product. Cherdrone et al. exposes an aluminum oxide composition to sintering. The aluminum oxide composition, reads on applicant's aluminum residue ash according to the definition given by applicant in the specification. The aluminum oxide is then subjected to sintering which exposes the aluminum oxide to a high temperature which would calcine and stabilize the aluminum oxide, thus producing a pellet. The pellet is thereafter ground and then the ground calcined stabilized aluminum oxide composition is then used as a fireproofing material. [Note Column 1, paragraph 3]

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. JP 2005-89267 does not qualify as prior art but discloses an aluminum oxide composition which is subjected to high temperature thus producing a refractory material capable of fireproofing a furnace.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Stephen J. Lechert Jr. whose telephone number is 571-272-1203. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30-6:00.
